

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of SOUTHAMPTON.

GENTLEMEN,

HAVING had the very distinguished Honor to be proposed (in Conjunction with Sir William Heathcote) as a Candidate to represent this County in the next Parliament, by a very respectable Number of Freeholders, I take the earliest Opportunity of acknowledging the deep Sense I entertain of their favourable Sentiments expressed towards me, and earnestly to request the Favour of your Exertions and Support; believe me also, Gentlemen, should I be so happy as to succeed, I shall, at all Times, use my utmost Endeavours to promote the Welfare of the Kingdom at large, and particularly the important Interests of this County, and by that Conduct to prove myself

Your ever faithful and much obliged humble Servant,

WILLIAM CHUTE.

The Vine, Dec. 23, 1789.
